Rabbi's Message

Dear Friends - Shalom Chaverim,

In a description of the annual pilgrimage festivals (Passover, Shavuot and the Fall harvest, Sukkot), we are told that people were supposed to travel to Jerusalem to celebrate and everyone had to bring something; each according to his or her capability. I just love this teaching and it resonates with me: "you shall not appear empty-handed, but each with his own gift, according to the blessing that the Lord your God has bestowed upon you" (Deut. 16:16).

Everyone has something special, some gift – be it a talent, a donation, work, humor, guidance... something that they can offer to help others and build their community. Anne Frank, just a young teenager, wrote "Give of yourself... You can always give something, even if it is only kindness... no one has ever become poor from giving."

Indeed, even though I say jokingly, "we are the little shul that could," we really couldn't, without the help, support and generosity of so many of you. We have accomplished many things this past year at CBE from all kinds of wonderful programs, services and activities to installing a beautiful, large movie screen, getting a new custom-built Torah-reading table and painting the exterior of the building (it looks great!). We look forward to continuing our social, religious and charitable programs in 2016 and also working on our physical building upgrades (painting the interior, new flooring and more). If you have something to contribute, we welcome your help and support.

May 2016 be a year of good health and blessing.

Shalom and Be Well!

Rabbi Michele Paskow

Tu Bíshvat

This year Tu Bishvat, the New Year for Trees will be celebrated on January 25th. I hope you will plant some trees in Israel in honor of the holiday: jnftrees.com is the easiest way to do this. Our Religious School students and families will be visiting a Butterfly Reserve right in Simi Valley to learn about Monarch butterflies and the plants that attract and feed them. Then we will return to the Temple and plant some milkweed and trees to welcome the "parparim" – פרפרים butterflies to CBE. Chag Samayach!

The Women of CBE will be celebrating with our annual Tu Bishvat Seder on Tuesday January 19th. All women are invited to attend- please RSVP. (See page 7)

VISIT BERLIN, PRAGUE, VIENNA & BUDAPEST THIS SUMMER WITH RABBI MICHELE – Info. meeting: Sunday Jan. 31st, 2 pm

The dates are set, June 26-July 7, 2016. We will visit castles, synagogues, go on a boat ride on the Danube River, see the history of the Berlin Wall, meet members of today's Jewish communities and much more. See more info on Page 11 of this issue or visit our web site:

President's Message

Shalom!

I would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year! Congregation B'nai Emet has had a lot of exciting of changes in 2015. What exciting things are planned for CBE in 2016? The Temple Board has many wonderful ideas planned for this coming year. You will have to come by and see.

As the consummate optimist, I feel that 2016 will be a great year. For those who have New Years Resolutions, one great resolution would be to volunteer some time supporting your synagogue. Congregation B'nai Emet is always looking for a few more good hands. There are many ways you can show your support. Please contact the temple office or ask a board member if you would like some ideas on how you can support CBE. You will be doing a great Mitzvah!

My wish for 2016 is that everyone have a happy, healthy and successful 2016.

See you at temple! Shalom,

Mitchell Salberg

Bat Mitzvah

My name is Emily Richmond. Many of you have watched me grow up over the last six years at CBE and welcomed me into the temple family. In addition to attending religious school at CBE, I keep busy with a variety of activities: soccer, singing, serving on the ASB at Redwood Middle School, spending time with my family—including my two beagles. As an animal lover, I dedicated my summer to collecting pet supplies for an underfunded animal shelter in California City. I thank my temple family for their support with the project. As part of this mitzvah, I began to understand the true meaning of "tzedakah." I understand that I must take on this lifelong responsibility to give aid, assistance, and money to worthy causes. My parents, grandparents, aunts, and uncles have demonstrated the importance of assisting worthy causes with both time and money. When I am called to the Torah on February 13th, I will be the first member of my family to read from the Torah in over 100 years. I am excited to be in a position to restart a family tradition, which unites me with my ancestors and to the local Jewish community.

Programs

Did you have a good time at the CBE Hanukkah party and Menorah Lighting Ceremony? A lot of people were responsible for making these events successful.

First and foremost, Rabbi Michele Paskow was inspirational with her ideas and moral support, and Cantor Michael Russ, with his humor and musical knowledge. President Mitchell Salberg; Exec. VP Ryan Richmond; Membership Co-VPs, Michael Hollander, who is always pitching in when you need last minute help, and Max Patera, with his physical strength and computer wisdom to assure the background music was available. Thank you.

How could we have pulled this off without the energy, experience, and indomitable drive of RuthAnn Rossman, and the magic of the Children's Choir led by Meridith Patera, not to mention her writing and direction skills in creating the hilarious "Chai Noon?"

Irwin Cohen, musical director and conductor of The CBE Orchestra, created the emotional direction of Hanukkah in the Way-Out West. All of the actors gave their best, leading to many ovations.

Kudos to Amy, Michael, Gail and Ron Mittelman. Can you imagine peeling, grating and frying 70 pounds of potatoes, creating 406 potato latkes? Steve Rossman, Alice Fiducia, Jill Katell and Kathy Smith manned the registration desk and sold raffle tickets. Thanks for a job well-done.

Amy also shopped with me. No one went hungry after filling up on salad, latkes, apple sauce and sour cream. And then, we topped it off with two great cakes. The serving and other chores were valiantly done by Frieda Bahr, Emily Doepking, Tracie Breiter, and Tami Plotkin. Erica Weiner and her husband Eric stepped up when needed, as did Linda Mann, who raised $102 for the social action committee to help feed the needy.

Maxine Seidel filled in where needed, as did Steve Rossman, who had to schlep a really big Hanukiah from the Temple to the Wood Ranch shopping center and lift it up to the Wood Ranch Clock Tower. It certainly towered over my personal Hanukiah which Rabbi lit while we chanted the Barucha kindling the four candles.

A special thank-you to our temple secretary, Marilyn Hollander, who put up with my many calls for 501.c3 letters, more business cards, and letters sent to various businesses appealing for their raffle donations. And thanks to my "Pickleball" mates who helped me by driving me to some of the locations to pickup various raffle donations - Bob "Otto" Lenart and Nelson Poon.

I would be remiss if I did not thank The Women of CBE, The Men's Club, and of course the CBE Religious School Staff and Volunteers who helped provide the gift bags at the Hanukkah Menorah Lighting Ceremony. Emily Doepking provided the Sufganiyote at the end of the ceremony. Thanks to the many restaurants and businesses who contributed to the success of our silent and regular raffle. If you won a prize, please thank the donors for supporting Congregation B'nai Emet's Hanukkah party and its "opportunity drawing."

Although the Rabbi presented a nice Kol HaKavod Award to me during the Hanukkah party, the deserving people are all those who took an active role in making this plan come together.

I apologize if I missed anybody, but the bottom line is that we did raise money for CBE, and we had a great time doing it.

Cantor's Message by Cantor Michael Russ

Recently at our interfaith Thanksgiving service I told a story with a little lesson. I now realize there is so much more in the story than I explained at the time. The Story:

When I was very young and lived in Brooklyn N.Y., people would dry their laundry on a clothes line which hung from one building to the next. A young couple moved in to our building and as she and her husband were sitting for breakfast, she looked out the window and saw a neighbor's laundry hanging out to dry. She said to her husband, "I can't believe that people hang dirty laundry outside! Her husband sat and continued reading his paper.

The next day, once again the woman saw laundry hanging outside to dry and said to her husband, "I still can't believe people hang their dirty laundry outside! The husband continued reading his paper just as before.

Finally on the third day, she looked through the window and she said, "Finally they hung up CLEAN laundry! Her husband, with his head in the newspaper, said, "I cleaned the window".

On Thanksgiving I said the lesson was that we should always see the world with clean windows. We should see the world without the distortion of dirt. Now I understand that we should also realize that there are others looking at us through those same windows. What is the "schmutz"... the dirt... that distorts the view? It is hatred, prejudice, bigotry, fear, and ignorance that distort our view in the world. Remember, others see us through those same "dirty" windows and therefore make all kinds of distorted assumptions of who and/or what we are.

Please don't misunderstand. There is evil in the world. The world is not all pretty and warm and good. But when we clean the windows ... when we remove the "schmutz" ...

then we can see more clearly and make better decisions of how to deal with the world around us. When our hearts are full of a lot of "schmutz" we don't think clearly and often make poor decisions. No matter which way people look through the window we all need a clear view.

To clean up the hatred and anger, we need intelligence, tolerance, and the ability to understand those different from us. We need strength and knowledge so we can fight evil in a smart way and continue to promote freedom. We need others to see this in us clearly as well, so that perhaps others will learn to understand and accept us as good human beings. Our freedom, knowledge and understanding are our strengths.

My mother would be so proud to know that I believe in having clean windows.

THE ONE WHO PLANTS A TREE: A poem for Tu Bishvat (15th of the Hebrew month of Shevat) by Richard J. Dorer

The man who plants a tree Must first prepare the fruitful earth By moving duff or sod, And cherish in his heart a silent prayer For he is working hand in hand with God.

It is a sacred task, to plant a tree, That always should be done on bended knee.

The artisans may strive for years to raise A structure reaching to the vaulted sky. That well deserves the everlasting praise And words of wonderment from passerby, But he, the humble man who plants a tree, Is fashioning his nation's destiny.

Look how beautiful the building looks! The outside has been repaired and painted! The Preschool was painted as well, and now the buildings match. Now it's time to focus our efforts on updating and improving the inside. The first two goals are to paint the interior and install new flooring. We have received a very generous gift toward the interior painting, but still need to raise $15,000 to complete these two projects.

If you would like to contribute, please speak with Temple President Mitchell Salberg, Rabbi Michele, or Marilyn in the Temple office. Help us make CBE look great!

Women of CBE

In the past couple of months, the Women of CBE had several very well -attended, successful and profitable events:

- The Donor Luncheon on Nov. 1 honored our diligent volunteers and raised a lot for the building improvement fund. Thanks to Laura Tepfer for all her help.
- The Nov. 10 meeting/ Tupperware party at RuthAnn Rossman's was a smash hit.
- The Nov. 15 Hanukkah
 Boutique/Tree Sale was great.
 Thanks to Sandy Miller and Max
 Patera for all their help.
- Sisterhood bought gelt, dreidels, toys, and large fillable dreidels for the Dec. 4 Hanukkah service, the Dec. 6 CBE Hanukkah Party, the Dec. 9 Community Candle lighting, and gifts to Religious School and Preschool students.

- We purchased 2 full-page ads in the Temple Hanukkah Party program.
- Our December meeting was our Hanukkah Dinner & Gift Exchange at the home of Jill Katell. We raised money for the Women of Reform Judaism's YES (Youth, Education, Special Programs) Fund, plus we had a blast eating and gifting.

Our amazing Program VP, Miriam Hintz, is now getting us ready for our Tu Bishvat Women's Seder, which is always a big hit, on January 19, with Rabbi Michele presiding. In February we'll hear from an expert on how to prepare for emergencies. Join us for socializing and learning. And noshing, of course.

Our "Purim Ball" will be March 19. It will have a '60s theme. Get your headbands and love beads out of storage and come join us for dinner, dancing, and surprises!

We are brainstorming ideas for future fun and fund raisers. Remember, everyone can support sisterhood by buying gift cards and tribute cards, and shopping in our House of Judaica Gift Shop.

We are all stronger together. Wishing you a happy and prosperous 2016!

How to observe a Yahrzeit at CBE

Light a 24-hour memorial candle in your home at sundown on the evening that begins the yahrzeit (anniversary of death.). It is also customary to attend Shabbat services at Temple and recite the Kaddish.

At Congregation B'nai Emet, names of your loved ones are read on the Friday evening before the Yahrzeit. If you observe the Gregorian (English) date, the name will be read following the vahrzeit date. It is suggested that you make a contribution to the Temple so that the memory of your loved one can be honored with an act of love and kindness.
